

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 14, of the Texas Constitution, I, Rick Perry, Governor of Texas, do hereby disapprove of and veto Senate Bill No. 1521 as passed by the Seventy-Eighth Texas Legislature, Regular Session, because of the following objections:

I support the goal of increased tuition flexibility for institutions of higher education and have signed House Bill No. 3015 to accomplish that goal. Senate Bill No. 1521, which would allow institutions to raise the tuition for graduate schools of business to the same level as law schools, does not achieve the comprehensive deregulation already provided in House Bill No. 3015. For that reason, Senate Bill No. 1521 is unnecessary.

Since the Legislature by its adjournment has prevented the return of this bill, I am filing these objections in the office of the Secretary of State and giving notice thereof by this public proclamation according to the aforementioned constitutional provision.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have signed my name officially and caused the Seal of the State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this 20th day of June, 2003.

Rick Perry
